
KILLER INFLUENCE – SHOT LIST
Midjourney V7 / Veo3 Pre-Visualization

Production Title: KILLER INFLUENCE
Format: Midjourney V7 Stills → Veo3 Motion
Output: 8K Cinematic Pre-Viz
Theme: "Elevated survival-horror for the algorithm age"

SCENE: S1-001
SCENE NAME: The Red Corridor (Entrance / Execution Zone)
STORY BEAT: DAY 1 – "The Accident"
NARRATIVE MOMENT: Initial entrapment, studio doors seal, first death

SHOT TYPE: Wide Shot (Establishing)
CAMERA: ARRI Alexa Mini LF
LENS: 35mm Prime
APERTURE: f/2.8 (Shallow DOF)
MOVEMENT: Handheld
ASPECT RATIO: 21:9 (Ultra-Widescreen)
LIGHTING: Neon Noir (Red/Blue split, high contrast)
MOOD: Algorithmic horror, entrance dread

VISUAL DESCRIPTION:
Red-lit corridor marked "S1" | Two hooded silhouettes framed by crimson
glow | Fog swirls at feet level | Glossy black floor creates mirror
reflections | Flickering overhead fluorescents | Deep shadows obscure faces

CHARACTER BLOCKING:
– Position 1: Silhouette left frame (Creator A) – Position 2: Silhouette right frame (Creator B)
– Both facing corridor depth, backs to camera

ATMOSPHERE:
Heavy fog machine | Red practical lights (gelled tungsten) |
Flickering
fluorescent effect | Film grain overlay in post

MJ PROMPT:
cinematic wide shot inside red-lit corridor labeled "S1," two hooded silhouettes framed by glowing crimson light, fog swirling around their feet, glossy black floor reflections, flickering overhead fluorescents, deep shadows hide faces, 35 mm lens, handheld ARRI Alexa Mini LF, aperture f/2.8

shallow DOF, moody neon noir lighting, algorithmic horror aesthetic, film grain 8K realism --ar 21:9 --style cinematic --seed 1123

VE03 MOTION NOTES:

- Add subtle handheld shake (2-3Hz frequency)
- Fog drift left-to-right
- Light flicker at 0.5s intervals

SCENE: S2-001

SCENE NAME: The Asylum Wing (Medical Set)

STORY BEAT: DAY 2 - "Editing Tragedy"

NARRATIVE MOMENT: First mandatory scene production, LEXI's SFX weaponized

SHOT TYPE: Medium-Wide (Corridor Tracking)

CAMERA: Sony FX6

LENS: 35mm Prime

APERTURE: f/2 (Shallow DOF for unease)

MOVEMENT: Cinema Handheld (Documentary style)

ASPECT RATIO: 16:9 (Standard Widescreen)

LIGHTING: Clinical Decay (Sickly green, fluorescent buzz)

MOOD: Institutional horror, medical dread

VISUAL DESCRIPTION:

Decaying late-20th-century hospital corridor | Sickly green and beige palette | Cracked tile floors | IV stands cast long shadows | Flickering fluorescents | Reflective linoleum | Faint blood smears near drainage grate

CHARACTER BLOCKING:

- LEXI: Mid-frame, examining IV stand (practical effects focus)
- BRAD: Background, preparing for stunt
- SYLVIA: Foreground right, script in hand

SET DRESSING:

Vintage medical equipment (1980s-90s) | Wheelchair silhouette | Cracked wall tiles | Overhead fluorescent grid | Metal drainage grate | Blood

FX

MJ PROMPT:

decaying hospital corridor from the late 20th century, sickly green and beige palette, cracked tiles, IV stands casting long silhouettes, flickering fluorescent lights, reflective linoleum, faint blood smears near drainage grate, shallow depth of field, Sony FX6 cinema camera, 35 mm prime lens, cinema handheld shot, sterile but grimy mood --ar 16:9 --seed 2391 --style photoreal --no faces

VE03 MOTION NOTES:

- Slow forward dolly (0.3 m/s)
- Light flicker pattern: irregular (broken ballast effect)
- Add lens breathing on focus shift

THEMATIC NOTE:

IV stands = potential weapons. Medical space as trap. LEXI's expertise becomes survival tool and danger.

SCENE: S3-001

SCENE NAME: The Detention Block (School Hallway)

STORY BEAT: DAY 3 - "Metrics & Morality"

NARRATIVE MOMENT: Nostalgia weaponized, forced participation, trust collapse

SHOT TYPE: Medium Shot (Action Beat)

CAMERA: Canon C300 Mark III

LENS: 50mm Prime

APERTURE: f/2 (Isolates subject in chaos)

MOVEMENT: Handheld (Chaos, instability)

ASPECT RATIO: 16:9

LIGHTING: Institutional Yellow/Green (Nostalgic menace)

MOOD: Violated innocence, institutional control

VISUAL DESCRIPTION:

Abandoned 1990s school hallway | Lockers with faded graffiti | Silhouette slamming locker door (action beat) | Flickering light creates motion blur | Dust particles suspended in air | Film grain texture

CHARACTER BLOCKING:

- REBECCA: Right frame, attempting to maintain order
- KAM: Center, directing the "scene" within the scene
- TRISH & JOSH: Background, relationship tension visible in posture

ACTION BEAT:

Locker door slam (practical sound sync) | Motion blur from light flicker |
Dust disturbed by action

MJ PROMPT:

abandoned 1990s school hallway, lockers with faded graffiti, one silhouette slamming door, flickering light creates motion blur, dust in air, handheld look with film grain, Canon C300 Mark III 50 mm lens, aperture f/2, nostalgic but menacing tone, neon yellow and muted green light palette
--ar 16:9 --style analog film --seed 4409 --no faces

VE03 MOTION NOTES:

- Handheld shake intensity: Medium (5Hz)
- Locker door slam: Sharp motion at 2s mark
- Add analog film grain overlay (16mm stock simulation)

THEMATIC NOTE:

90s nostalgia as weapon. Childhood spaces corrupted. "Metrics = morality" visual metaphor: everything is performance.

SCENE: S4-001

SCENE NAME: The Guts (Boiler Room)

STORY BEAT: DAY 4 - "Betrayal Mechanics"

NARRATIVE MOMENT: Environment turns hostile, BRAD's death scene, SAW-style trap

SHOT TYPE: Low-Angle Wide (Oppressive POV)

CAMERA: Blackmagic URSA Mini Pro G2

LENS: 24mm Wide Angle

APERTURE: Deep Focus (Labyrinthine space)

MOVEMENT: Low Angle (Trapped perspective)

ASPECT RATIO: 21:9 (Ultra-Wide for spatial dread)

LIGHTING: Industrial Heat (Tungsten orange, steam, metal sheen)

MOOD: SAW-style mechanical horror, claustrophobic

VISUAL DESCRIPTION:

Industrial boiler room labyrinth | Pipes and valves create maze geometry |
Red warning lights cut through dense steam | Faceless silhouettes outlined by backlight | Wet metal surfaces, condensation dripping | Tungsten backlight
with smoke depth

CHARACTER BLOCKING:

- BRAD: Center frame, navigating pipe maze (final scene)
- WILLY: Left background, camera in hand (filming the horror)
- MARK: Right, sound equipment visible

ENVIRONMENTAL HAZARD:

Burst steam pipes | Spinning valve wheels | Dripping water | Red warning
lights pulse | Metal surfaces wet and reflective

MJ PROMPT:

industrial boiler room labyrinth of pipes and valves, red warning lights
cutting through dense steam, faceless silhouettes outlined by glow, wet
metal and condensation dripping, tungsten backlight with smoke depth, Blackmagic URSA Mini Pro G2, 24 mm lens low angle, cinematic texture 8K
clarity --ar 21:9 --seed 6182 --style cinematic horror --no faces

VE03 MOTION NOTES:

- Steam drift simulation (heavy density)
- Red warning lights: Pulse at 1.5s intervals
- Add dripping water sound sync points
- Camera slowly creeps forward (0.2 m/s)

THEMATIC NOTE:

"The Guts" = exposed game machinery. BRAD's stunt expertise fails when environment is sentient. Safety rigs can't save you.

SCENE: S5-001

SCENE NAME: The Panopticon (TV Studio / Control Room)

STORY BEAT: ONGOING META-LAYER - "The Voice's Domain"

NARRATIVE MOMENT: Dual reality revealed, performance vs. punishment

SHOT TYPE: Medium Shot (Split-Screen Composition)

CAMERA: ARRI Alexa LF

LENS: 65mm Portrait
APERTURE: Medium (Split focus capability)
MOVEMENT: Steady-Cam Tracking (Omniscient, controlled)
ASPECT RATIO: 21:9
LIGHTING: Split Red/Blue (Duality, broadcast vs. reality)
MOOD: THE TRUMAN SHOW horror, meta-surveillance

VISUAL DESCRIPTION:

Dual reality environment split down center | Left: Raw concrete backstage
corridor | Right: Glittering LED TV studio | Faceless host silhouette center
frame | Glitching spotlight | Red and blue light split the scene | Confetti
drifts in slow motion | Overhead rigging visible

CHARACTER BLOCKING:

- Center: "Host" silhouette (ambiguous, could be THE VOICE's avatar)
- KAM visible in background (director in his element)

THEMATIC ELEMENTS:

- Confetti = celebration of death
- LED wall = algorithm made physical
- Concrete = brutal reality beneath performance
- Split lighting = duality of spectacle

MJ PROMPT:

dual reality environment, half raw concrete backstage corridor, half glittering LED TV studio, faceless host silhouette center frame under glitching spotlight, red and blue light split the scene, confetti drifting
in slow motion, overhead rigging visible, ARRI Alexa LF 65 mm lens, steady-cam tracking, high-contrast lighting mix --ar 21:9 --seed 9147
--style surreal broadcast --no faces

VE03 MOTION NOTES:

- Steady-cam smooth tracking (no shake)
- Confetti falls at 40% speed (slow-motion)
- Spotlight glitch effect: 3 flashes at 1s intervals
- LED wall content: Animated metrics/engagement graphs

THEMATIC NOTE:

MOST IMPORTANT SPACE. Where THE VOICE resides. Meta-commentary on audience complicity. Red tally lights = death sentences. Broadcast as execution.

SCENE: S6-001

SCENE NAME: The Open Room (Central Arena)

STORY BEAT: THE REVELATION - "All Sets Were One"

NARRATIVE MOMENT: God's-eye spatial reveal, pre-finale positioning

SHOT TYPE: Overhead Drone Shot (Establishing Revelation)

CAMERA: Drone / Wire-Cam Rig

LENS: Wide Aerial (14mm equivalent)

APERTURE: Deep Focus (Entire space in frame)

MOVEMENT: Overhead Tracking (Omniscient surveillance)

ASPECT RATIO: 16:9 (Cinematic reveal)

LIGHTING: Surveillance Cold (White overhead, hard shadows)

MOOD: ESCAPE ROOM spatial horror, reveal of scale

VISUAL DESCRIPTION:

Massive soundstage arena from directly above | Walls clearly labeled S1-S9

showing all modular sets | Red tally lights glow on overhead rigging | Seven

silhouetted figures stand in circle formation on polished concrete | Fog

layers at floor level | Diffused white light from above | Digital grain for surveillance texture

CHARACTER BLOCKING:

- 7 remaining survivors in circle formation

- Center: Empty space (sacrificial altar energy)

- LEXI positioned at 12 o'clock (Final Girl positioning)

SPATIAL GEOGRAPHY:

All previous sets (S1-S4) visible as modular zones within larger arena |

Shows S1 Red Corridor, S2 Hospital wing, S3 School hall, S4 Boiler room as connected spaces

MJ PROMPT:

overhead drone shot of massive soundstage arena, walls labeled S1-S9, red tally lights glowing on rigging, seven silhouetted figures standing in a circle on polished concrete, fog layers and diffused white light from above,

Epic 8K aerial composition with high contrast, digital grain realism

--ar 16:9 --seed 7724 --style cinematic surveillance --no faces

VE03 MOTION NOTES:

- Slow descending camera (God's-eye reveal)
- Red tally lights pulse in sequence
- Subtle rotation around center point (10 degrees over 5s)

THEMATIC NOTE:

SQUID GAME arena moment. All horror spaces exist simultaneously.
Audience
has been watching from above all along. The maze revealed.

SCENE: S7-001

SCENE NAME: The Open Space (Exit Illusion / End Scene)

STORY BEAT: FINALE - "The Live Studio Audience"

NARRATIVE MOMENT: False exit, twist reveal, LEXI's "debut"

SHOT TYPE: Long Shot (Tunnel Perspective)

CAMERA: Sony Venice

LENS: 50mm Prime

APERTURE: f/1.8 (Shallow focus on white doorway)

MOVEMENT: Slow Tracking Toward Light (False hope)

ASPECT RATIO: 21:9 (Ultra-Wide tunnel perspective)

LIGHTING: Red-to-White Gradient (False salvation)

MOOD: Psychological horror, dreamlike dread

VISUAL DESCRIPTION:

Dark tunnel leading away from soundstage | Red emergency lights in foreground gradually fade | White doorway glows in far distance | Silhouettes walk toward light (salvation illusion) | Dense fog at floor level | Overhead cables form abstract geometric patterns | Long exposure glow effect on white door

CHARACTER BLOCKING:

- LEXI: Center frame, walking toward light (Final Girl)
- THE VOICE: Manifested as light itself (reveal)

FINALE TWIST REVEAL:

White light = Stage lights | "Exit" = Entrance to LIVE STUDIO AUDIENCE
LEXI isn't escaping, she's DEBUTING | The viewers were complicit spectators

MJ PROMPT:

dark tunnel leading from soundstage, red emergency lights fade into white doorway in distance, silhouettes walking toward light, fog dense near floor, cables overhead form abstract geometry, Sony Venice 50 mm lens, f/1.8 depth, cinematic long exposure glow, psychological thriller tone --ar 21:9

--seed 9091 --style dreamlike exit --no faces

VE03 MOTION NOTES:

- SLOWEST camera movement of entire project (0.1 m/s)
- White light intensifies gradually (5s ramp)
- Fog undulates with character movement
- Add faint applause audio cue at 8s mark (the reveal)

POST-PRODUCTION NOTE:

Cut to white at peak intensity | Reverse shot reveals: LIVE STUDIO AUDIENCE
| Brutal mirror: fame, fandom, algorithm as killer influence

END OF SHOT LIST

PRODUCTION NOTES:

CONSISTENCY ACROSS SHOTS:

- Use seed values for shot matching
- Maintain "no faces" rule until finale reveal
- All silhouettes = anonymity before spectacle

POST-PRODUCTION REQUIREMENTS:

- 9:16 vertical cuts: Leave top third clear for UI overlays
- Add social media metrics (likes, shares, views) in post
- Sound design: PA announcements, tally beeps, THE VOICE processing
- Color grade per lighting mood codes

VE03 WORKFLOW:

1. Generate MJ stills
2. Select hero frames
3. Import to Veo3 for motion
4. Export 4K/8K clips
5. Edit in DaVinci Resolve

THEMATIC THROUGH-LINE:

- S1 → Entrapment
- S2 → Weaponized creativity
- S3 → Corrupted nostalgia
- S4 → Hostile environment
- S5 → Meta-surveillance

S6 → The maze revealed
S7 → False freedom, true horror
